What is a Parish Mission?

A Parish Mission is a series of presentations that are intended to challenge, support and uplift our spiritual journeys, something like being on a retreat spread out over several days.

The Mission is for everyone, young and old, for those with many questions and or only a few, and for those just starting, recently returning or deeply engaged in their faith journey.

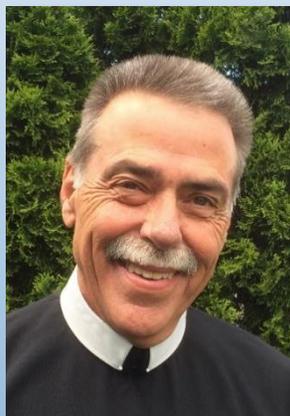

The mission will be rooted in the richness of our Catholic heritage. Each session has a different theme, but all center on one's personal faith journey, connecting our faith to everyday life.

We will gather together at the Cross to pray, sing, listen and receive an invitation to grow, and then disperse to bring Jesus' love and mercy into the world through our actions.

Featuring Redemptorist Preacher

Reverend Peter Schavitz, C.Ss.R.

Father Pete is a dynamic mission preacher who grew up in Mount Prospect. His words, faith, stories and humor spiritually impact thousands who hear him. He will light a fire in your heart that will continue to burn long after he leaves. 'One of us', Father Pete is a big fan of the Chicago Bears, Bulls, Blackhawks and Cubs!
