OLW MASSES HAVE DOUBLED IN JULY!

Father Arthur and the Church Reopening Team are excited to announce that Our Lady of the Wayside Mass offerings have doubled beginning this weekend.

"The Reopening Team met to review compliance and success of the 9:30 and 11:30 masses and determined that we are now in a ready position to double our Mass offerings," said Fr. Arthur. "Our goal from the beginning was to offer Mass and Holy Communion to as many parishioners as was safely possible. We started conservatively, offering two Sunday Masses to 50 parishioners each. We learned from this process, made adjustments and increased attendance to 125 parishioners at each Mass last week. And based on continued success of this roll-out process, we are now prepared to add 5:00 pm Saturday Vigil Mass and a 6:00 pm Sunday Mass to the 9:30/11:30 am Sunday lineup, starting in July," added Father.

Preregistration for Mass attendance is mandatory and is available starting at 7:00 am the Friday preceding each Saturday or Sunday Mass. Preregister online here: <https://bit.ly/37RmjR8>. If you require assistance registering, please contact Kathy Freiburger in the parish office at (847) 253-5353.

Face masks must be worn at all Masses throughout the entire time you are in the building. Please also bring hand sanitizer if you have it.

Those unable or not quite ready to return to live Mass, or those considered to be 'most vulnerable,' are encouraged to attend Mass virtually. Streaming Mass continues to be offered live on OLW's Facebook page at 5:00 pm each Saturday and will also be available on the parish website shortly after the conclusion of live-streaming Mass. Dispensation is still offered by the Archdiocese.

DUE TO THE NATIONAL HOLIDAY THERE IS AN ABBREVIATED BULLETIN THIS WEEKEND

It is available on the website only with no hardcopy in the parish office.

A full bulletin will return on July 12.

Guidelines for reopening the schools and classes were issued by the state of Illinois this past week. The guidelines were provided to the media at the same time as schools received them. As such, we have just begun reading through them. The Chicago Archdiocese is currently reviewing the new state guidelines as they relate to their own plans. They have indicated they will be providing specific details to school administrators in the next 2-3 weeks. The Office of Catholic Schools has been working on its own reopening plan for several weeks. We continue to wait for the details needed to finalize a specific plan for OLW. At that time, we will be able to finalize plans for REP and communicate them to all our families.

REGISTRATION

For the Religious Education Program, Grades 1-8, For Year 2020-2021

As we prepare classes for the new Religious Education year and develop safe plans under state guidelines for COVID, we encourage all families to complete the registration packets found on the parish website under Education. Receiving all the required paperwork makes finalizing classroom placement and obtaining books, supplies and most importantly, catechists, more efficient. If you have any questions please call the Office at 847-398-5011.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There's a Christian drama called Baggage. In the course of this monologue, the main character carries more and more (empty) luggage, slings, and backpacks, explaining how, through this and that scene, he collects baggage. You can see the actor start to be weighed down by what he's carrying, but it's so understandable why he does it: we all do the same. He tries unsuccessfully to unload that baggage onto others, but to no avail. In the climax of the script, the actor drops all of the bags with a huge sigh of relief. This image, while slightly kitschy, can be a helpful image for us as we consider this all too familiar Gospel text.

A myriad of scenarios can explain the weight that we hold deep within: it can be the confusion and anxiety about the current events we see on the news and social media; it can be discouragement about being furloughed; it can be the frustration from our children making poor life choices; it can be the shame from our secret, hidden addictive behaviors; it can be a powerlessness in confronting a tense relationship with a family member; it can be the regret we bear for failures or unresolved conflict from our past. The older we get it seems as though the more baggage we tend to collect. I think that's normal, but I also think that we have yet to learn how to let the baggage go ... just like the actor in the skit.

So, when Jesus says, "Come to me ... I will give you rest," I learned to take him at his word. I took a leap of faith and laid my heart bare that morning ... and the rest that Jesus talks about was not threatening to me; it was actually inviting. The burdens that I was carrying ... he took them off my shoulders and emptied them on his cross. He replaced my burdens with the yoke of discipleship; in essence he said to me, "You've tried it your way; now try mine ... it will work out better for you in the long run." He has been true to his word ever since.

Our baggage has become our comfort and definition. We don't experience what Jesus promised because we fear, or we doubt. But Jesus is patient as he is persistent. The invitation will always be there. Grace is always available to us ... but it is "hidden" (cf v 26) because we have hidden our faults, thinking that Jesus isn't "God enough" to know about them, let alone to forgive us for them. So, we go on living our lives of quiet desperation, hoping for relief, lacking the gumption to grasp for it. Weighted down, we lose our balance often, blaming this person or that scenario. We'd like to "rejoice heartily," but we think erroneously we are condemned to "labor and burdens." But just maybe, right before inconsolable despair envelops us when faced with our mountains of impossibilities, we can utter seven words — if even sheepishly — "I can't anymore; you can; please do."

Then just watch what Jesus will do!
