DID YOU KNOW...

Auto raffles were a successful fundraising tool in the earliest days of our parish. Booklets containing 12 raffle tickets of $1 each were distributed to parishioners to sell to raise money for the building fund. In 1954, a Cadillac Coup de Ville was awarded. Three Chevrolet Bel-Air Sedans were awarded in 1955. A Cadillac Sedan de Ville was awarded in 1956. Winners were announced at the annual Dance and Card Parties each year.

HUMBLE MEANS

Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord

Father Arthur Marat

The famous philosopher Jacques Maritain said that the Church uses two kinds of means for spiritual ends. The first kind of means is called rich, temporal means. Rich means are things like organizations, meetings, parish centers, and mass media. These means can be dangerous because it is easy to attribute them to ourselves and not to God, the Giver of all good gifts. This is pride. Today is the feast of the Transfiguration. Jesus brought three Apostles: Peter, James, and John, with him to Mount Tabor. On this mountain, Jesus was transfigured. His clothes became dazzling white. We can imagine that He looked glorious and triumphant. At this moment, Jesus used rich means. And it was possible to see the effects of these rich means in His whole being.

The second kind of means is humble means. Humble means is the acceptance of suffering out of love for God. For example, when you pray and your knees hurt, or when you discover that your life is very ordinary, or when no one seems to care about your difficulties—these are humble means.

In the Church, we are accustomed to rich means. We are accustomed to implementing many programs, ministries, events, etc. While this is not bad in itself, it often overshadows the fact that Jesus most often used humble means. He was born in a dark cave in Bethlehem. He grew up poor, living day to day. He was even dejected and rejected on Mount Calvary. And today, He is the poorest and most vulnerable in the Eucharist.

The Church has a treasure that no one can take away from it both as an institution and within each of our lives as Christ's followers: humble means. And, in order to use these humble means, we need only two things: good will and love. People can take away the Church's money, buildings, and organizations. But no one can take away the good will and charity of Jesus' followers.

Let us try to follow Jesus' example. Let us use rich means and humble means, but always with good will and charity.

Yours in Christ,
Father Arthur

YOUTH MINISTRY TRANSITIONS...

Danielle Pitzer, Director of Lifelong Faith Formation

Our Director of Youth Ministry is leaving our parish at the end of August. The job is posted with the Archdiocese and is being shared to those who might be interested through various channels. We are making special efforts to continue to serve our high school teens and soon our middle school teens through this important ministry.

It is my pleasure to share with the parish that we have two adult volunteers who have agreed to provide continuity to the high school teen program and revive the 7th-8th grade middle school program.

Thomas (TM) McKenna has volunteered to lead the high school teen program as the Interim High School Youth Minister. TM is an alum of the OLW high school youth ministry and he has been volunteering for 8 years as an adult small group leader for our OLW high school ministry. He was a small group leader during the last youth ministry transition.

Flo Trunk has volunteered to be the Interim Middle School Youth Minister to revive the former middle school ministry. Flo is a former OLW parent of 6, and a former and current OLW 6th grade girls' volleyball coach. She has served as an adult small group leader for the former OLW middle school ministry as well as high school youth ministry, and chaperoned mission trips for 5 years. Flo will lead the development of the new middle school youth ministry.

Stay tuned for registration information, a schedule, and a date for a parent meeting for the high school youth ministry. More information will be communicated soon about the schedule and structure for the new middle school youth ministry.

Would you like to volunteer as an adult leader for either youth ministry? Please contact Danielle Pitzer at dpitzer@olwparish.org.

How to Get Relief From Common Bug Bites

Though the warm temperatures and summer rain are great for your lawn, garden and mental health, it can also hatch a new generation of mosquitos and ticks who need to eat blood to survive. Even if you take preventive measures, the best-laid plans can result in a bug bite that usually needs at least minimal treatment.

MOSQUITO BITES:

It is recommended to first disinfect the area with soap and water. Then apply ice as needed for 10 minutes to help relieve some of the itching and swelling symptoms. Use over-the-counter topical antihistamine creams, topical steroids and anti-itch creams to relieve itching by following the product instructions or even trying a few effective home remedies.

“Try to avoid scratching mosquito bites to avoid creating any infection,” says Dr. Jūratė Kunickaite, a family medicine physician at Advocate Outpatient Center in Aurora, Ill. “Seek medical advice if you begin developing any signs of redness, warmth, pain or discomfort near the mosquito bite.”

Dr. Kunickaite adds that if you experience any symptoms such as fever, swollen lymph nodes, hives, headaches, worsening areas of redness or swelling, fatigue, red eyes, or painful joints, especially in the hands or feet, to seek medical advice. The Zika virus and West Nile Virus can cause serious or life-threatening symptoms. So, when in doubt, get it checked out.

TICK BITES:

If you happen to get a tick bite, it is important to remember in most cases a tick must be attached for 36 to 48 hours or more before it can transfer the most common Lyme disease-causing bacteria (Borrelia burgdorferi) to humans. Always remove the tick with tweezers and firmly grasp the tick as close to the skin as possible with an upward, steady motion. Next, be sure to clean the area with a disinfectant such as rubbing alcohol or soap and water.

“If you do not feel comfortable removing the tick, then you can always seek medical attention,” says Dr. Michael Ross, a family medicine physician at Advocate Outpatient Center in Batavia, Ill. “Health care professionals can determine if any antibiotic prophylaxis or treatment is needed based upon your circumstances.”

Dr. Ross cautions to continue monitoring the tick bite within the next thirty days for any signs of a tickborne illness which includes fatigue, headache, muscle aches, joint pain, swelling, fever or a rash. If you experience any new symptoms, contact your health care professional immediately.

Though best to avoid mosquito and tick bites, when it does happen, know that most can be taken care of on your own with common supplies. If it gets worse, your primary care provider can assist with the next treatment steps.

Improve your vision

Much of the time, we keep our heads down. We focus on the day ahead or the task at hand. We worry about personal relationships gone awry or the pricey cost of living. Transfigured seeing invites us to lift our gaze higher or to grasp truths under the surface of things. The broader, deeper vision reveals to us how to respond effectively to what we see. Saints in every generation have exercised this prophetic vision, recognizing a social problem and then creatively proposing a response. Pray the daily news—and ask for the guidance of a clarifying vision.

FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14; 2 Peter 1:16-19; Matthew 17:1-9 (614). "As the visions during the night continued, I saw: One like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven."

May your faith ripen sweetly

It's about this time of year that grapes in many parts of the world begin a crucial transformation process the French have named veraison. It's when grapes start to ripen and change from green to purple—not always at the same time in the same cluster, making for some beautiful color combinations. Mostly likely because of the timing of his feast day, Pope Sixtus II is the patron saint of grape prosperity. Where are you in the midst of your own veraison as a Christian? Pray for cause to celebrate your faith bearing ripe fruit.

MEMORIAL OF SIXTUS II, POPE, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 11:4b-15; Matthew 14:13-21 (407). "They all ate and were satisfied."

For want of a better word

When Dominic founded the Order of Preachers in 1216, he'd been appalled by the rise of the Albigensian heresy, denying the goodness of God's creation. Even more appalling was the lack of informed preaching to inoculate the congregation against it. Dominic threw himself into the kind of witness modeled by the Acts of the Apostles, his new religious community adopting the motto "to praise, to bless, to preach." Not surprisingly, the Dominicans have given us eloquent saints, including Catherine of Siena and Thomas Aquinas—even captivating the world in 1963 with a chart-topping pop song, "Dominique." To quote another Dominican, Saint Martin de Porres: "Everything, even sweeping ... could be a prayer, if it were offered to God."

MEMORIAL OF DOMINIC, PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 12:1-13; Matthew 14:22-36 or Matthew 15:1-2, 10-14 (408). "Throughout my house he bears my trust: face to face I speak to him; plainly and not in riddles."

The awful truth

The bombing of Nagasaki, which occurred on this day in 1945, was truly awful in all senses of the word. Splitting the atom to unleash its enormous power put the genius and depravity of humanity on full, awe-inspiring display. Though we have many positive uses for atomic energy, its initial use to increase our capacity to kill on a massive scale is a moral failure that we have yet to overcome. The war machine rages on. What role will you play in helping humanity move toward the good?

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 13:1-2, 25—14:1, 26-29a, 34-35; Matthew 15:21-28 (409). "We have sinned, we and our fathers; we have committed crimes; we have done wrong."

Where's your treasure?

During the persecution of the Early Church, Saint Lawrence was under a death threat from Emperor Valerian. But his persecutor offered a deal. Lawrence could live if he turned over the treasures of the church. In one of history's most audacious rebukes, Lawrence is said to have gathered the poor and sick and told Valerian: Here is our treasure. For his act of resistance and faith, Lawrence was burned to death. How do you resist injustice? Saint Lawrence, give us courage.

FEAST OF LAWRENCE, DEACON, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 9:6-10; John 12:24-26 (618).

"Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life."

Love takes its toll

Inspired by her mentor Saint Francis, Saint Clare and the women who eventually joined her to form the Poor Clares had a "radical commitment to corporate poverty." The women lived simply and spent most of their day in prayer and chores. It was a hard life, but one filled with joy for those who chose it—and continue to choose it. Spend time today pondering this pearl of wisdom from Clare: "Love that does not know of suffering is not worthy of the name."

MEMORIAL OF CLARE, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 4:32-40; Matthew 16:24-28 (411).

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

Youthful endeavors

According to the United Nations website, half the people on Planet Earth are under 30 years of age. Yet only 2.6 percent of government lawmakers worldwide are under 30. International Youth Day, observed annually on August 12, is designated by the United Nations to draw attention to cultural and legal issues surrounding youth. Pope Francis teaches in Laudato Si', "What kind of world do we want to leave ... to children who are now growing up?" (#160). International Youth Day recognizes everyone's responsibility to hand on a sustainable, free, and secure Earth to the next generation. What's going on in your community to accomplish this goal?

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 6:4-13; Matthew 17:14-20 (412). "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move."

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

August 6, 2023

The Transfiguration of the Lord

What is Christianity finally about? These days if you ask almost anyone who doesn't know the Bible you'll probably hear an answer like this: "Being a good person" or "following the golden rule." No offense to the golden rule, but our faith is simply much stranger than that. This week's feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord is a luminous example of this. Jesus becomes radiantly and overwhelmingly beautiful. The glory of God literally shines forth from his body and even his clothes. Here we see that Christianity is not mainly a moral system, but a relationship with God in Christ, one that finally makes human beings gloriously beautiful.

Now we can see our good and bad deeds in a new and de-centered way. Our morality isn't about a heaven or hell score-card. It's about lives open (or closed) to transfiguration, lives capable of revealing the glory of God in Christ to the world. Spouses, children, friends, co-workers, priests, consecrated women and men, and so on — we are all called to let the beauty of Jesus make our lives beautiful, little by little. His beauty in us is the center of our faith.
