DID YOU KNOW...

Due to the explosive growth of the parish in the 1950s, school enrollment consumed “parish” space (including the temporary church) in the school building. Father O’Hara had no choice but to build the permanent church sooner than anticipated. The decision was made to build the church without completing the interior. Refinements would be completed later, as funds later allowed.

OPEN EYES, OPEN HEART

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

Father Arthur Marat

The example of the master who gave his servants different talents reminds us that God is always giving good things to us, and we must share them with others. In this situation, it is tempting to refrain from helping or giving to others for fear of losing what little we have left. It is very easy to concentrate only on ourselves and our families and think about doing whatever is necessary to maintain our comfortable way of life. It is easy to forget to be open to others who are also in need; who are afraid and worried about the future; who are alone.

As we prepare to enjoy delicious, abundant meals, and to share love and fellowship with family, relatives and friends this Thanksgiving, we must remember to open our eyes to see those around us and help them through good works, kind acts, a gentle smile, and offering our daily lives for them through prayer. We have received everything from God and from His goodness. So let us be generous in responding to God’s goodness by loving and caring for Him not only in our family members and relatives, but also those who might be overlooked and forgotten.

Yours in Christ,
Father Arthur

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS LEAD OLW GROTTO PROJECT

The Knights of Columbus, Holy Rosary Council, are in action here at Our Lady of the Wayside!

At the bequest of Fathers Arthur and Gilbert, we are building a Grotto on the south side of the church — between the rectory and priest sacristy stairs.

The Knights have secured the services of a landscape architect, a horticulturist/artist, a tree removal service, and a landscaper to insure the work is done properly. Several of these professionals have generously donated their time and talents at no charge. Others have given significant discounts on their services.

The Grotto Project budget was set at $30,000, and the goal is to cover the cost without using parish funds or a capital campaign. Rather, this will be a 'grass roots' project. The Knights have already secured pledges from several individuals and we are now asking for your support to meet the goal. Work is already underway.

The six-foot "Welcoming Virgin" statue is scheduled to arrive from Italy in March 2024 and the goal is to complete the Grotto Project by May 1st, 2024.

This is the time to see your donation to the Knights of Columbus in action, for years to come.

PLEASE SEND YOUR DONATION TO:

*Please note "OLW Grotto Project" on the memo line.

Thank you for your continued support and generosity.

Did you know? There are some historians who claim that the first Thanksgiving was actually a Catholic celebration. More than 50 years before the Mayflower, a group of Spanish colonists celebrated Mass and had a feast with native Timucuan in St. Augustine, Florida. Even if this potential “first Thanksgiving” is not recognized in history, the traditionally held event did have a Catholic attendee — Squanto, the Native American who taught the Puritan settlers survival techniques in their new land. Years prior, he had been captured by the English and freed by Franciscans who educated and catechized him.

CHRISTMAS ANGELS NEEDED: ST. BENEDICT CHRISTMAS DINNER

For over fifteen years, generous families and friends of Our Lady of the Wayside have supported a wonderful cause — helping St. Benedict Parish in Chicago feed 300+ homeless and lonely folks on Christmas Day. We plan to continue the tradition this Christmas and will caravan to St. Benedict to set up and serve meals to those in need.

Individual & Family volunteers are needed for THREE SHIFTS:

- FIRST SHIFT delivers the food to St. Benedict's on Christmas morning and then helps set-up the gym and prepare the food for the servers
- SECOND SHIFT plates the food and visits with the guests. Many appreciate a warm smile and conversation as much as the generosity Wayside and St. Benedict provides
- THIRD SHIFT arrives after the meal is served, to help with clean-up

If you are not able to attend in-person, there are several opportunities to contribute. Please consider...

- Providing cooked food for the meals. We need to purchase and prepare cooked turkeys, hams, mashed potatoes, and stuffing. Sides like corn, gravy, dinner rolls, cranberry sauce are needed as well as beverages and desserts
- Purchasing and wrapping hats and gloves (separately) to be distributed as gifts to our guests
- Providing gift card donations for guest raffle prizes

The annual Auction Gala was OLW School's primary fundraising event for many years, up until the pandemic in 2020. With the return of in-person events came an opportunity to re-imagine the Auction Gala for a new generation of parishioners and school families. Hence, the Soiree was born. It will blend the best parts of the Auction Gala with a refreshed take on fundraising events, building community and support for Catholic education at our parish.

YOU can support the Soiree TODAY in the following ways:

1. Donate to the LIVE auction. Do you have access to a unique experience? A vacation home or timeshare property? Connections to the restaurant, hospitality, or entertainment sectors? I would be happy to talk with you about creating a package that can be part of our Live auction. Please contact me by December 31, 2023.
2. Donate to the SILENT auction. I would like to offer 8-10 packages valued at $400+ at our silent online auction. Your donation may be paired with other items to create packages for this event. To donate, simply visit www.bidpal.net/olwsoiree by January 15, 2024. Thank you!
3. Save the date! Make plans to attend the Soiree on February 24, 2024 at the Metropolis Ballroom of Arlington Heights. Watch this space for more information in the coming weeks.

THANK YOU! I continue to be amazed by the generosity of our families at OLW as we seek to ensure the next seventy years of Catholic education. I look forward to working with all of you in the coming months. If you are interested in working together as the Soiree draws near, let me know.

Self-Care for Caregivers

Problems arise when we caregivers consistently put the needs of others before our own needs. We take care of everyone else in our lives but tend to think it would be selfish to care for ourselves.

Working Your Way Through. Caregivers are like teapots, constantly giving of ourselves, filling the “teacups” of the sick, the dying, the grieving, and all the people in need at work and at home. As our teapot is filling the cups of all these individuals, it eventually runs dry.

Compassion fatigue. Compassion fatigue is what we are left with when we drain our teapots dry, time and time again. We give and give of ourselves until we have nothing left to give, and, yet we keep giving. We become totally drained and exhausted, and we’re affected physically, emotionally, mentally, socially, and spiritually.

What is a caregiver to do? We begin by changing the way we think about our caregiving.

1. Acknowledge the fact that you are affected. Welcome to the human race. You are not Superman or Superwoman.
2. Understand that we cannot properly care for others until we properly care for ourselves. We cannot give what we do not have.
3. Realize that taking care of ourselves, “self-care,” is not selfish. It is essential to living a healthy, productive life.
4. Commit to self-care as a healthy lifestyle and not simply an “in case of emergency” measure. This doesn’t happen overnight or by accident. We need to purposely schedule things every day that refresh, rejuvenate, refuel, and revive us.
5. Continually learn more about taking effective care of yourself. Read books about self-care, try new things to relax and refuel.

Dr. Judy Pierson is a licensed psychologist in private practice. She suggests that since compassion fatigue can affect us physically, emotionally, mentally, socially, and spiritually, we should think about how we can refuel in each of these areas.

Physically: Participate in light exercise, get a massage, rest, try deep breathing, and eat nutritious foods.

Mentally: Write in a journal, visualize yourself in a soothing place, read an interesting book, listen to music, and use positive affirmations.

Emotionally: Find safe ways to vent your emotions. You express your feelings with family, friends, or coworkers who listen, talk with a counselor, cry, scream into a pillow, or write about your emotions.

Socially: Make time for pleasing social activities, take a class, indulge in a hobby, and connect with people who share your interests.

Spiritually: Connect with nature, connect with God, read inspirational material, pray, or talk with a spiritual guide.

Take heart. The caregiving that you do is important and valuable work. The patients, clients, and loved ones you take care of need you to be the best you can be...and so do you. Take time every day to refuel for them and for you.

Curl up with the Good Book

President Franklin D. Roosevelt inaugurated the first National Bible Week. Presidents since have continued the tradition of encouraging scripture reading during the holidays. The practice began in 1941, when NBC radio hosted the National Bible Association's founders. News of the attack on Pearl Harbor interrupted the program, and NBC asked the association to continue reading the Bible all day to a grieving nation. This week, spend some time with scripture daily. Consider reading the book of your choice, from the Old or New Testaments. Or read a psalm of thanksgiving daily. Discover the inspiration.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31; 1

Thessalonians 5:1-6; Matthew 25:14-30 (157). "For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness."

Monday, Nov 20, 2023

Can we talk?

The word bible is from a Greek word meaning "book." If you could have no other book, the Bible would be the one! As you count your blessings this week, don't forget to give thanks for sacred scripture and spend some time with the inspired word of God. If you haven't before, try lectio divina (Latin for "divine reading")—it's a traditional monastic form of praying with scripture in a meditative way to open ourselves to hearing what God is saying to us and listening for our own interior response. Scripture isn't just text, it's the Living Word—strike up a conversation!

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 1:10-15, 41-43, 54-57, 62-63; Luke 18:35-43 (497). "What do you want me to do for you?"

Tuesday, Nov 21, 2023

Mary, most exemplary

According to tradition, Mary's parents—an elderly Anne and Joachim—were so grateful for the unexpected birth of their daughter, they presented her in the Temple to thank God. Accounts also say the toddler Mary "danced with joy" on the third step of the Temple, signifying her future role. Other qualities of the Blessed Mother, present even from her youth, are enumerated in the "Ten Evangelical Virtues of Mary" that we're all encouraged to emulate as Christians: pure, prudent, humble, faithful, devout, obedient, poor, patient, merciful, and sorrowful. Cultivate these in your own life by praying the Virtues of Mary chaplet used by the Marian religious order since 1699.

MEMORIAL OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 6:18-31; Luke 19:1-10 (498). "Today salvation has come to this house."

Wednesday, Nov 22, 2023

Let the music play!

Today's gospel from Luke tells the parable of the 10 gold coins. Matthew tells the same parable (Matt. 25:14-30), only he replaces Luke's "gold coins" with "talents." Whichever version you read, it's clear that God wants us to make the most of what we've been given—and that he recognizes our efforts! In honor of today's Feast of Saint Cecilia, patron of music and musicians, enjoy Anton Bruckner's Te Deum as performed by the talented musicians of the Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia (National Academy of St. Cecilia, founded under Pope Sixtus V in 1585) or check out the contemporary namesake band La Santa Cecilia, recipient of the 2013 Grammy for Best Latin Rock Album (Alternative or Urban).

MEMORIAL OF CECILIA, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 7:1, 20-31; Luke 19:11-28 (499). "I tell you, to everyone who has, more will be given, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away."

Give thanks for a virtuous day

Because Thanksgiving brings together family members, personalities sometimes grate, children might misbehave, and the gravy surely will spill. It's an ideal day to practice what the Catechism of the Catholic Church calls the "cardinal virtues": prudence (think before you act), justice (be fair), fortitude (don't give up), and temperance (maintain your equilibrium). These virtues smooth out the bumps in human interaction. Ask God to increase in you the virtue you most need for a happy celebration today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 2:15-29; Luke 19:41-44 (500).

Mass for Thanksgiving Day (943-947). "If this day you only knew what makes for peace."

Friday, Nov 24, 2023

Follow the rule

"Keep the rule, and the rule will keep you." In this monastic proverb, "rule" refers to the daily rhythm of life for monks and nuns that is grounded in their foundation and charism as a community and oriented toward Jesus the Christ. The rule helps the community develop habits for prayer, work, relationships, study, and even play. Monastics still follow a rule of life, as do other intentional communities. Each of us can develop a rule of life according to our own daily rhythm and relationship with God. This rule will keep us grounded, even when the inevitable storms of life roll in.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 4:36-37, 52-59; Luke 19:45-48 (501). "Let us go up to purify the sanctuary and rededicate it."

Saturday, Nov 25, 2023

No room for violence

On this day in 1960 a trio of courageous sisters was brutally assassinated for opposing the murderous regime of Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo. Since 1993, the U.N. has commemorated World Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women in honor of the Mirabal sisters. It is an appropriate coincidence that today we also honor Catherine of Alexandria, a young convert martyred at the tender age of 18 during Roman persecutions around the year 300. She was reportedly subject to terrible tortures, but her courage instead attracted hundreds more converts. No woman should have to endure violence for any reason. Today is a day we can honor martyrs both modern and ancient with a firm "No más, no more."

MEMORIAL OF CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA, YOUTH MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 6:1-13; Luke 20:27-40 (502).

"They are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise."

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

November 19, 2023

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

When I was a kid, I hated playing Monopoly because my siblings and friends always seemed to win. But worse was how it happened. Scared to risk my fake money on buying properties, I'd hold on to it. My opponents hungrily bought up the various real estate squares on the board. Then, inevitably, my poor, low-equity self would land on their spots, pay them rent, and my money would drain to zero. It seemed so unfair. The rich get richer, and the poor get poorer. I had to learn that monopoly money is meant to be spent. I was scared to lose some of it. So, I lost all of it.

How do we see what we possess? Jesus' parable about the talents is not really about economics but about the investability of everything he entrusts to us. How marvelous that everyone in the fable who places talents in the open market doubles their investment. The only one who doesn't is the man who fearfully buries his one talent. Jesus' success strategy for us seems to be, whatever we have, get it out of our possession. Risk it as quickly and as fully as we can.

You and I have precious gifts. We have valuable things to invest — time, talents, treasure. The Lord invites us to be brave and even somewhat reckless, to give as much away as possible. If we give it away in the direction of love and truth, it will grow. If we hold on to it in fear, the little we have will be taken away. Let me challenge you this week: find something in your life you're holding on to, and risk it by giving it away. It won't double if you hold on to it.

— Father John Muir ©LPi
