Reflection: The Twist Ending

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Any reader of psychological thrillers will come across the “dead main character trope” fairly often. This is the famous Sixth Sense twist ending (I would say “spoiler alert,” but the movie is older than most of the people who work in Youth Ministry at your archdiocese, so you’ve probably seen it by now) where the reader finds that the main character has been dead for all or most of the story.

I’m always a little disappointed when this happens. It delivers shock value, sure, but it also undermines everything that happens in the story. You’ve come on a journey with this character, only to find out that nothing you saw transpire was real in the way you thought it was. You feel a little stupid, because the whole time you only had part of the truth.

I suspect Jesus knows this about us. He knows we don’t like to have the rug pulled out. It’s why he is so up-front about his humanity following the resurrection. See how Jesus, resurrected, shows the disciples his feet, his hands. See how he asks them for food and lets them watch him eat it. See how this creates in them an understanding, a belief.

The humanity of Jesus Christ is absolutely crucial. It’s what bridges the divide between the sons of Eve and the God she defied. Our reconciliation with God cannot happen unless human flesh pays the price that will balance the scales. Human flesh: skin that can tear and bleed, bones that can break, a mouth that can thirst, a stomach that can ache with hunger.

The passion and death of Jesus Christ is not a thriller with a twist ending: he was a ghost the whole time! The twist, if anything, is this: he was human the whole time.

“Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” — Luke 24:39

NATIONAL HEALTHCARE DECISIONS DAY

WHY IT MATTERS AND HOW YOU CAN PARTICIPATE

National Healthcare Decisions Day (NHDD) is an annual initiative held on April 16th in the United States to promote and raise awareness about the importance of advance care planning. The goal is to encourage people to think about and communicate their healthcare preferences and decisions with their loved ones and healthcare providers.

NHDD was founded in 2008 by Nathan Kottkamp, a healthcare attorney, who wanted to create a national day dedicated to educating people about the importance of advance care planning. Since then, NHDD has grown into a nationwide movement with organizations, healthcare providers, and community groups coming together to raise awareness and provide resources to help individuals and families make informed decisions about their healthcare.

Advance care planning involves discussing and documenting your healthcare preferences, including the type of care you want and don't want, in case you are unable to make decisions for yourself. It also involves designating a healthcare proxy, someone you trust to make healthcare decisions on your behalf, in case you cannot. Advance care planning ensures that your healthcare wishes are respected and honored, reduces the burden on your loved ones, and can improve the quality of care you receive.

NHDD is important because it encourages people to have important conversations with their loved ones and healthcare providers about their healthcare wishes, which can be challenging but necessary conversations to have. It also helps to remove the stigma around end-of-life discussions and advance care planning and encourages individuals and families to take proactive steps towards ensuring their healthcare preferences are respected. By participating in NHDD, people can take control of their healthcare decisions and have peace of mind knowing their wishes will be honored.

There are several ways individuals can take action on National Healthcare Decisions Day and start their advance care planning. Here are some steps they can take:

1. Start the conversation: Start a conversation with loved ones about your healthcare preferences and encourage them to share theirs. This can be a challenging conversation, but it's important to ensure that everyone is on the same page.
2. Review advance care planning documents: Review advance care planning documents, such as living wills and healthcare proxies, and make sure they reflect your current healthcare wishes. If you haven't created these documents yet, NHDD provides resources to help you get started.
3. Choose a healthcare proxy: Choose a trusted person to be your healthcare proxy and make sure they understand your healthcare preferences.
4. Communicate with healthcare providers: Discuss your healthcare preferences with your healthcare providers and make sure they are documented in your medical record.
5. Review and update regularly: Review and update your advance care planning documents regularly to ensure they reflect your current wishes and preferences.
6. Share with others: Share your advance care planning documents with your loved ones and healthcare providers, so they know your wishes in case you cannot communicate with them yourself.

It's never too early to start planning for the future, and by doing so, individuals can ensure that their healthcare wishes are respected and honored. Take action this National Healthcare Decisions Day! Please see the display in the Gathering Place foyer for Healthcare Decision Day resources.

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE in Chicago

Save the Dates June 26 – June 30, 2024

The National Eucharistic Revival is a three-year, grassroots initiative of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to assist Catholics in coming to a fuller understanding and appreciation of the meaning of the Eucharist in the life of the Church. The aim is to proclaim that the celebration of the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life, to assist Catholics to encounter the Risen Lord in the Eucharist, and to deepen their discipleship in sharing His work of redeeming the world, won on the cross.

The Revival will culminate in a pilgrimage across the country to Indianapolis for the Eucharistic Congress in July 2024. The Archdiocese of Chicago, on the Marian Route of the pilgrimage, will host pilgrims and has organized special events and Eucharistic celebrations in archdiocesan parishes and locations from June 26 to 30, 2024.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Liturgy of the Eucharist \ˈyü-kə-rəst\

Eucharist, Greek for “thanksgiving,” is the formal name for the Mass. Also part three of the four-part movement of the Mass: the Introductory Rite, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of the Eucharist, and Concluding Rite. The Liturgy of the Eucharist includes the people’s offering, the Eucharistic Prayer, and the Communion rite.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-Liturgy-of-the-Eucharist>

CONTEXT

Liturgy is, therefore, both word and action . . . the Liturgy of the Eucharist is the action that flows from the word.

The Liturgy of the Word centers its action at the ambo, the Liturgy of the Eucharist at the altar. The first is fundamentally verbal, the second primarily visual. The first is story, the second tangible sacrament.

—Alice Camille

WHY IT MATTERS

We celebrate our faith in two main units of liturgy that serve as the spiritual lungs of the church: Word and Eucharist. The first tells the story of how we came to be the People of God. The second gives thanks for this astonishing reality. In addition, the church teaches in Lumen Gentium that the faithful, “as true witnesses of Christ,” are “obliged to spread the faith by word and deed,” which includes taking part in the Eucharistic sacrifice, “the source and summit of the Christian life.”

From the General Instruction of the Roman Missal: The Church has arranged the entire celebration of the Liturgy of the Eucharist in parts corresponding to precisely [the] words and actions of Christ (no. 72).

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Why are Catholics focused on Eucharist?

A Eucharistic spirituality is ground-level for Catholic life. It’s built on three gospel accounts of the Last Supper, in which Jesus employs well-known forms of Jewish prayers of praise and thanksgiving and urges his friends to “do this in memory of me.” While John’s gospel doesn’t recount this narrative, he does have an extended teaching on Jesus as the bread of life.

Early Church teachers like Justin Martyr, Tertullian, Cyril, Ambrose, and Augustine agreed that Eucharist had several meanings. One is the impact of the Passion of Christ for human history. Another is the unity Christians share as the Body of Christ. Engaging this sacrament has profound moral implications for those who do.

In the medieval church why Jesus makes this self-offering was obscured in debates about how it’s accomplished ritually and theologically. Most believers adored the Host but fewer embraced a life of thanksgiving. The Second Vatican Council sought to restore “full, conscious, and active” participation so that the People of God might remember that the why of Eucharist is more vital than the how.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-Eucharist-focus>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER (APRIL 14)

Grace-filled beginnings

The disciples on the road to Emmaus and those in the Upper Room experienced Jesus in bodily form and also in his role as rabbi. He helped them “connect the dots” of their Jewish tradition so they could see that the Resurrection was the fulfillment of the hopes of their ancestors.

READINGS: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 John 2:1-5a; Luke 24:35-48 (47 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/041424.cfm>). “He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.”

FAITH IN ACTION

Allow Easter to help you locate yourself in the vast sweep of history and see that you are the intended beneficiary of God’s grace since the beginning of time.

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

April 14, 2024

3rd Sunday of Easter

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, “If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!” As a lifelong late-arriver, it’s something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the “it counts” is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is, and how helpful it is to re-think the Mass in its light.

The famous “Road to Emmaus” story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist. Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples, as he connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with his own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire. This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus’ presence in the “breaking of the bread.”

With this in mind, how can we possibly think that the Liturgy of the Word is unnecessary or incidental? The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that’s precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus himself sets our hearts ablaze with his Word so that we know him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too!
