Spring 2024

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

May is a month to remember and celebrate the mothers and mother figures in our lives. These women—on whom all generations depend—are essential to the fullness of God's plan for human life.

May is also the month when we celebrate the important work of our Catholic Charities. Helping mothers in need is core to our Catholic faith and a cornerstone mission for Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago. Whether they be single mothers, mothers of children with special needs, foster mothers, or mothers who are migrants, we help them and their children.

Your generous donation to the Mother's Day Collection for Catholic Charities enables this urgent work. Catholic Charities was founded more than a century ago by the Archdiocese to help those in need in Cook and Lake counties. As the largest provider of human services in our region, Catholic Charities serves nearly 400,000 people annually. This tremendous reach of services is only possible through your generous support.

Each year I call on our parishes to support Catholic Charities, and so I encourage you to be generous by contributing, either:

- In-person during the second collection on Mother's Day weekend, May 11-12
- Online at catholiccharities.net/donate
- By mail to Catholic Charities, P.O. Box 8275, Carol Stream, IL 60197-8275.

Thank you for your on-going support and partnership. May Mary, our Mother whom we honor in May, continue to inspire us to take up the mission of her Son with joyful enthusiasm.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

BLESSING OF OUR WELCOMING MOTHER STATUE

Join us on Sunday, May 12, following the 9:30 am Mass, as Bishop Jeffrey Grob will bless our new Welcoming Mother statue.

We will gather at the newly landscaped Grotto area on Park Street between the Rectory and Church portico entrances.

An honor guard will be provided by the Knights of Columbus.

As I Love You

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

This week my children were learning about energy. We set up an experiment with toy cars — one was placed in front of another, and a third was pushed into the two stationary ones.

The forward motion caused the front car to move, but not much. “Most of the energy goes into the car in the middle, not the car on the end,” my daughter concluded.

I asked her why she seems to have so much energy, and I seem to have so little.

“Because you’re old,” she replied confidently.

Most days I feel like that first car, barreling at life with all my energy and love and good intentions, only to have it almost entirely absorbed by the proverbial middle car. It’s so easy to be discouraged. The devil so badly wants us to feel discouraged.

But the law of love is not unlike the law of conservation of energy. Love is neither created nor destroyed. It is only transferred from one form to another. And yes, sometimes it certainly seems like it disappears. It appears to get lost between my hands and the plate of dinner that goes uneaten or evaporates off of my lips as words I fear are never heard. It is spat upon as a commandment the world would prefer I do not keep.

But we are not called to simply love one another — to love when it seems effective and productive and appreciated. We are called to love as Christ loved: recklessly, selflessly, and yes, even without logic. We are called to love with a love that doesn’t give up and is never withdrawn. A love that doesn’t fear death or the world’s hatred. A love that stands willing to argue, to be reviled, to be dismissed.

We are called to be that first car, hurtling ourselves against a world that isn’t ready to accept or understand us. And we trust that, even when we can’t see how, the love that seems to disappear simply changes forms.

“This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.” — John 15:12

PILGRIMAGE UPDATE

YOUR PRAYER INTENTIONS ON • THE CAMINO

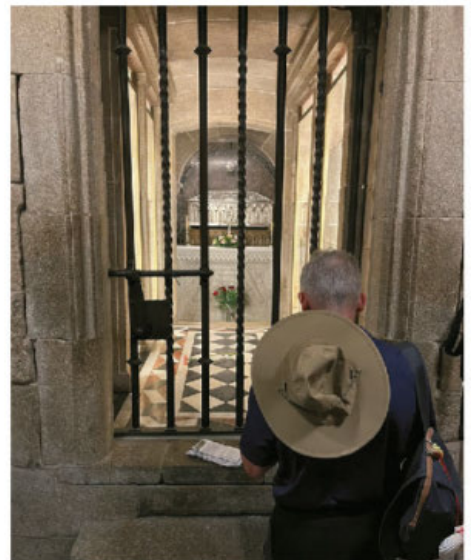

After 12 days; 240 kilometers (149 miles); 403,788 steps (no, I didn't count them, my iPhone did); daily Rosaries and Chaplets of Divine Mercy; numerous Divine Office Morning and Evening prayers; several Masses; one case of tendinitis (+more ibuprofen that you could shake a stick at)—AND with God's direction and mercy—I arrived at Santiago de Compostela on 17 April, 2024 (that's how they say the date in Europe).

Through your prayers and support, I dutifully offered up each and every one of your prayer intentions, which I personally carried throughout my pilgrimage. These prayer intentions were heard by our Heavenly Father, through the intercession of St. James, to whom I personally delivered your intentions.

In offering up your intentions, I asked our Heavenly Father to answer them as requested. And, once answered, I prayed that those asking give thanks to God and glorify His name. But, if such prayers were not answered at this time as requested, I requested that God give those asking a greater understanding of His will. That they be graced with the Holy Spirit's wisdom, knowledge, understanding, and fortitude to better understand and accept God's will, whatever it may be. Like you, I thanked the Lord for hearing our prayers. I too pray that we take the time, the place, and the space to see how the Lord is moving us in cooperating with His grace.

—With love, Deacon Paul

Keep a look out in upcoming bulletins, as Deacon Paul intends a future talk to share the details of his pilgrimage!

Pray with us.

Respect Life Leaders Gather at Wayside

Our Lady of the Wayside's Respect Life Ministry recently hosted representatives from Respect Life Ministries in other Vicariate I Parishes to a morning of sharing and fellowship. Fourteen attendees from five parishes plus the Archdiocese attended. Each shared how their ministry operates, where they have success, and where they have opportunities. Raymund Pingoy, Senior Coordinator for Respect Life at the Archdiocese of Chicago, added broader insight and encouragement in the discussion. All present spent time learning from each other and brainstorming different ways to help each other in the future. For more info about OLW's Respect Life Ministry, email respectlife@olwparish.org

KATHY O'NEILL, R.N.

COORDINATOR OF PASTORAL HEALTHCARE

7 Ways to Support a Loved One's Mental Health

You've likely been there – or could be in the future – where a friend or family member shares with you what's troubling them, but you're not sure what to say. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, more than 1 in 5 U.S. adults live with a mental illness. When someone you know is struggling with their mental mindset, it's best to create space for them to talk openly and honestly about how they're feeling.

Dr. Gene Carroccia, a clinical psychologist and vice president of ambulatory behavioral health services for Advocate Health Care and Aurora Health Care, offers seven ways to better support a loved one with a mental health concern:

1. Become more comfortable talking about mental health

The topic of mental health is often taboo, so it can be easier to avoid or minimize it. While it takes courage to start a conversation with a loved one about their mental health, if it's done in a caring and non-threatening manner, it may open new doors for them. We are in a national mental health crisis together now, and we are challenged to stretch our comfort zones.

2. Learn more about mental health challenges

I recommend researching your loved one's mental health symptoms and issues. Learning more about the topic can also increase your comfort level. You can visit helpful online resources, like the National Alliance on Mental Health, to become more knowledgeable. The more comfortable you are with the subject matter, the better you can be there for a struggling loved one.

3. Listen to convey empathy and concern

Sometimes your loved one just wants you to listen while they vent about what is troubling them. While they may need professional assistance, not everyone needs this during difficult times. Being heard is an important human need, so work on really listening when they open up to you. Ensure it's during a time free of distractions and avoid taking over the conversation with your personal experiences or beliefs.

4. Use "I" statements and not "you" statements

Saying 'I'm worried about you' or 'I've noticed you haven't been yourself lately' can provide a sense of support and safety. Expressing 'you' statements such as 'You need to let that go' may sound harsh and unsupportive.

5. Don't assume

When a loved one shares their mental health concerns with you, try not to judge. We shouldn't assume we know how others feel. To combat stigma, it's helpful to avoid blame and be sensitive, compassionate and patient.

6. Encourage them to speak with a professional

Don't put all the burden on yourself to help others feel better in their time of need. Trust your gut if you have concerns and encourage them to speak with a mental health professional. Help them obtain a first appointment, if necessary. If you feel stuck and work for a company that has an Employee Assistance Program (EAP), you can reach out for their support. EAPs are typically free, confidential, and can offer guidance and referrals.

7. Prioritize time for yourself

It can be easy to neglect your well-being when supporting someone else with their significant struggles. Set healthy boundaries for yourself and carve out time for self-care.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Ascension \ə-,sen(t)- shən

The act of ascending, or rising upward. The final earthly manifestation of the Risen Lord after the Resurrection. Jesus is lifted up and taken from view, transferred to the realm of the divine.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-ascension>

CONTEXT

In the Scriptures, many ancient holy figures were said to be taken up to heaven, especially Enoch and Elijah.... Thus, ascension to the heavens came to be expected of holy and great persons; it indicated divine approval of them as well as their accession to heavenly power.

—Father Jerome Neyrey, S.J.

The ascended Christ, far from being absent, fills the whole cosmos in a new way.

—Sister Brid Long, S.S.L.

His ascension is our glory and our hope.

—Saint Augustine

WHY IT MATTERS

The Ascension establishes the Christ's universal rule and the church as the visible Body of Christ, equipped with the power and courage for mission. It assures us of our destiny to be with Christ now and on the last day. As Saint Augustine says, "While in heaven, he is also with us; and while on earth, we are with him."

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 667):
Jesus Christ, having entered the sanctuary of heaven once and for all, intercedes constantly for us as the mediator who assures us of the permanent outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

RELATED WORDS

Assumption | Resurrection | Pentecost | Epiphany

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What is Christ's Ascension?

Ascension seems like a feast designed to resolve a mystery: after Easter, where did Jesus go? Answer: back to his Father. Yet Ascension stories don't exactly provide a snapshot of Jesus leaving town. Luke says Jesus was removed to heaven from Bethany on the day of his Resurrection. Acts of the Apostles reports this event 40 days later, from the Mount of Olives. Mark agrees that it happened on Easter—but while Jesus was at table with his disciples. Houston, we have a problem.

Or maybe not. Saint John Chrysostom insisted Ascension simply conveys the final exaltation of Christ after the humiliation of the cross. Saint Augustine viewed the Ascension as the glorification of us all: where Jesus went, we too might go. Theologians distinguish between "passive" assumptions and the active Ascension of Jesus. Another unique element of the Ascension is that while Jesus is physically gone, he remains present in a new way. The church becomes the visible Body of Christ on Earth, bearing his Spirit and sharing his Eucharist. In short, Jesus lifts up the church to where he is.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-ascension>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD (MAY 12)

Unlimited energy supply

All is not lost when Jesus leaves the disciples. In fact, nothing is lost because his Spirit remains—his essence, his energy, the fullness of his love for God and for us. Jesus is with us always through the power of the Holy Spirit. Each day, in every moment no matter what the circumstance, that power is yours to draw on. You are never alone. Nothing can separate you from the love—or the power—of God.

READINGS: Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23; Mark 16:15-20 (58 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/051224-Ascension.cfm>).
"You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you."

FAITH IN ACTION

Don't waste energy trying to go it alone. Draw on God's power—it's free and totally renewable.

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

May 5, 2024

6th Sunday of Easter

Once a man came to the Vatican and asked to see Pope John Paul II, claiming that they had been friends in Poland. When told of the man, the Pope said, “He is mistaken about our friendship. I don’t recall ever having suffered with him.” As it turned out, the man had never known the Pope. Now, I’m not sure if the story is totally factual. But doesn’t the juxtaposition of suffering with friendship sound exactly like JPII? He understood that the deepest and most lasting friendships are forged in the fires of shared suffering. No suffering, no friendship. Amazing.

This week we hear Jesus say to the apostles and to us, “You are my friends if you do what I command you” (John 15:14). In Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection, God entered the world of human suffering and transformed it into an avenue of friendship with Himself. Following His command — to love, to lay down our lives for others — will always entail suffering. But this suffering only deepens our friendship with Him. His suffering is ours; ours is His. We have become friends of God.

This week, how might you share your suffering with the Risen Jesus? How might he be sharing his suffering with you, in the lives of those around you? Be attentive to that, and you’ll find that you are indeed a friend of God, because you’ve suffered together a great deal.

— Father John Muir ©LPi
